

WELDED GABIONS

University of Edinburgh, Charteris Refurbishment 2008/2009

Gabion Rainscreen Cladding with Hand Placed Gabion Facing Stone.

The wall was constructed as part of the renovation works to an existing university building.

Gabion Type – 4mmØ welded unit

Height – Up to 6.4m High

Inverness Pharmaceuticals, Inverness

Free Standing Gabion Wall with Hand Placed Gabion Facing Stone.

The wall was built to screen off the service yard
from the Main Entrance and ties into the building

Gabion Type – 4mmØ welded unit

Height – Up to 4m High with 1.5m wide base

Landscaping Former Hospital Site, Glasgow (below)

Mass Gravity Gabion Wall with Hand Placed Sandstone Facing. The Stone was sourced from the demolition of a sandstone retaining wall, from elsewhere on the site.

The wall was built to retain an old Hospital Facia and facilitate the construction of a lower level walkway.

Height – 3m Gabion Type – 3mmØ Welded unit

Napier University

The wall was built as part of the construction of a new Campus facility at Craiglockhart.

Height – 3.5m Gabion Type – 4mmØ Welded unit

